The Cal Poly Pomona Foundation is pleased to present our 2011 - 2013 Biennial Report, highlighting the innovative ways we support Cal Poly Pomona, and stay true to our mission of "Quality Service Supporting Quality Education."

We are offering our report online, utilizing an electronic communications approach with supporters and stakeholders, in keeping with our commitment to reduce costs and conserve resources.

The Foundation provides the services that help make a dynamic campus community: Bronco Bookstore, Dining Services, Kellogg West Conference Center & Hotel, University Village Housing, Real Estate Services (Faculty/Staff Housing and Innovation Village), and Bronco Bucks campus debit card. The Foundation is a self-supporting, nonprofit auxiliary organization serving Cal Poly Pomona for almost 50 years. Surplus funds generated by Foundation operations support the University by providing financial and facility resources to benefit students, faculty, and staff.

If you require hard copies of this report, please contact Anne McDoughlin at 909-869-5418 or amcdoughlin@csupomona.edu

Shop24: A mini market in a mega vending machine

The University of Washington unveiled its new Shop24, a fully automated vending machine located in the University Hill area. The machine, which is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, is part of an initiative to provide students and faculty with convenient access to food and supplies. The machine accepts credit cards and is staffed by Shop24 employees, who are available to assist customers.

The machine is designed to be user-friendly, with a large display screen and intuitive controls. Customers can select from a variety of products, including snacks, drinks, and staple items. The machine also includes a waste disposal system to help keep the area clean.

The University hopes that Shop24 will help reduce food waste by providing students with the opportunity to purchase smaller quantities of food. The machine also includes a feature that allows customers to donate excess food to local food banks.

The opening of Shop24 was attended by University officials, including the Chancellor, who spoke about the importance of providing students with access to healthy and affordable food options.

The University of Washington is committed to providing a safe and healthy environment for all students and faculty. Shop24 is just one of the many initiatives the University is implementing to achieve this goal.
